

Everyone feels this way sometimes. If you, or someone you know, feels this way most of the time it can affect the quality and enjoyment of life, family members, work commitments and relationships.

Getting the right type of support can help get things back on track.

Rural Outreach for Locally Led Outcomes (ROLLO) is a free and confidential service providing mental health support to the Condobolin community and surrounds. ROLLO provides flexible support options tailored to meet the needs of farmers, farm workers, their children and families. Staff can travel ~100km from Condobolin to meet at a time and location convenient for you, whether that is in town, at your home, or on your farm.

Rural Outreach for Locally Led Outcomes

Referral Form

Rural Outreach for Locally Led Outcomes (ROLLO) is a free service provided by Mission Australia in partnership with NSW Department of Health. This service aims to support the rural community including farmers, farm workers and their families experiencing hardship, depression, stress and anxiety related issues. This is an outreach service covering Condobolin and surrounds (up to ~100km radius), meaning we can come to you to provide individualised, on-farm support. You do not require a referral from a doctor or other health professional. If you or someone you know could benefit from support, simply fill in this form, give us a call or drop into the office for a chat.
